ONCAT is Ontario's Learner Mobility Expert

ONCAT supports the expansion of academic pathways, working to reduce barriers for students looking to transfer among Ontario's public colleges, universities, and Indigenous Institutes.

ONCAT's Mandate

ONCAT partners with postsecondary institutions to help establish academic pathways, facilitate recognition of prior learning, and support learner transitions into the labour market. We do this by:

- Funding research and providing institutional grants that support learner mobility
- Collecting transfer data and sharing resources
- Hosting events and facilitating groups that strengthen our sector
- Helping students identify transfer and pathway options with ONTransfer.ca

ONCAT helps learners get where they want to go, no matter where they begin. Visit ONCAT.ca to learn more.

Did you know Ontario has a postsecondary transfer and pathway system that makes it easier for students to transfer between schools, programs, and courses?

ONTransfer.ca is a free tool that helps students:

- Identify transfer and pathway options
- Access different entry points into a program or school
- Find ways to change programs or switch schools without losing credits
- Combine certificates, diplomas, and degrees
